Management Trainee Program

About us

The Schulte Group is a well-established family-owned ship owner and ship manager, with over 135 years of experience.

The Group employs 20,000 seafarers and 3,000 people on shore, owns and co-owns over 90 vessels and manages about 650 ships.

Our Management Trainee Program

Our Management Trainee Program appeals to university and maritime studies graduates who wish to accelerate their personal and professional development.

We are offering motivated professionals a chance to gain a wholistic overview of the maritime industry and the Schulte Group through rotations in our various offices and subsidiaries globally.

What can you gain?

- A tailor-made program that runs for up to two years with each rotation lasting between 3-6 months and will include mainly project work as well as experiences on board a vessel and at a shipyard.
- Gain knowledge in different Schulte Group subsidiaries and departments such as our our ship management company Bernhard Schulte Shipmanagement (BSM), finance, technical/marine projects, M&A and investment projects, digital marketing, maritime digital solutions, marketing, cruise, offshore, project development and other business units.
- An assigned mentor from the Management team, with whose guidance you will be able to identify the right career path.
- Continuous assistance by the HR team.
- Work and learn in an international environment, whilst engaging with different cultures.

Do I make the grade?

- University degree or higher
- Experience in maritime industry or relevant qualifications will be considered an advantage
- Fluent in spoken and written English
- Team-oriented with good communication skills
- Interested in working in a international environment
- Willingness and flexibility to relocate abroad

How do I get onboard?

Your journey with us is a scan away. Kickstart the process by dropping in your resume, cover letter, and an article or research paper you've produced and that you're proud off here:

We are looking forward to your application!
